Dear Parents & Carers,

Everyone at Bygrove hopes you've had a great week!

We are looking forward to Be Healthy Week which kicks off on Monday with a Fun Run at Bartlett Park. EYFS will be starting their week with Sports Day in playground. Parents are very welcome to join us for both events!

Next week we are hoping to be able to confirm which day the school will be closed for Eid the following week so please look out for a message from the office team.

Best wishes & enjoy the sunny weekend,

Fiona

Year 3

The Year 3 Geographers travelled to Kew Gardens to visit the Rainforest Exhibit and to experience what it feels like to be in a rainforest. We also carried out some field work so that we could learn how Kew Gardens protects itself from local environmental issues.

We surveyed and mapped bin locations to see how they deal with litter. Furthermore, we performed a traffic survey to see how many automobiles pass by the park causing pollution.

We are thrilled to invite you to our school's upcoming Music Showcase on June 26th. This event promises to be a celebration of our children's' musical talents and a memorable experience for all.

We encourage you to arrive at 2:15 PM to secure good seating before the showcase begins promptly at 2:30 PM.

Help wanted!

Our Summer Fair preparations are underway but they can be made better with your help!

Our target is to raise £1,650 so together with your help, we can reach this.

DEAR PARENTS/CARERS,

Are you someone with specialist skills, knowledge, experience or networks?

Examples could include face painting, makeup artist, hairdresser, designer and many more...!

We need your help for the summer fair on 30/06/2023.

Please contact Sharon or Emily M via the school office for further information.

Going to WORK DAY
